

Alliance for Childhood Cancer Action Days 2023

What is Action Days?

Action Days is a two-day event that brings our community together to advocate for important childhood cancer issues currently before Congress.

Action Days 2023 is returning to Washington, DC from April 24-25. Registration is now open! Please visit www.allianceforchildhoodcancer.org for more information.

What Will I Be Doing on 4/24?

Monday, April 24 is our Training Day. Training begins at 10 a.m. ET. Breakfast and lunch are provided. The training day includes:

- Guest Speakers
- Issues Training
- Meeting Fellow Advocates
- Planning Capitol Hill Meetings

What Will I Be Doing on 4/25?

Tuesday, April 25 is our Capitol Hill Day. Capitol Hill Day includes:

- Breakfast Kick-Off
- Transportation to Capitol Hill
- Meetings with Your State Lawmakers

Capitol Hill meetings can run as late as 4:30pm ET.
Please plan travel accordingly.

Faces of Childhood Cancer

The Faces of Childhood Cancer Project is an opportunity to share inspirational stories with legislators and the public.

Please visit www.allianceforchildhoodcancer.org for more information.

For more information, please email alliance@asco.org